SPANISH CONVERSATION
SCHEDULED AT UM
DURING SUMMER SESSION

MISSOULA---

A course in conversational Spanish for beginners is scheduled during summer session at the University of Montana.

The course is being offered as a public service at a minimum cost by Kenneth C. Brett, a UM foreign languages lecturer, through UM Continuing Education.

Brett said total cost per person for the course would be about $35, depending upon the number of persons who enroll for the five-week program.

Twenty hours of instruction during the first half of summer session are scheduled.

Brett emphasized the course will be a noncredit course, open to the general public.

"The course," Brett said, "is for those with little or no knowledge of Spanish.

Emphasis will be on practical situation dialogues in ability and common interest groups.

Recording devices are to be made available to those who may wish to record their own voices for replay during class sessions."

Class sessions are scheduled from 7-9 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays beginning June 24. Registration will be in room 342 of the UM Liberal Arts Building. A minimum of 10 students will be required before the course can be offered.

Further information may be obtained by phoning Brett at 543-3989 in the evenings. His office phone number is 243-4321.
